Section 2

Invigilation arrangements

Please confirm that all persons employed to carry out the invigilation of examinations have received adequate training in Invigilation rules and regulations as detailed below:

2 Invigilation rules and regulations
Ref	Criteria	Tick
1	No person who has taught any of the candidates in the examination subject may act as the sole invigilator.
2	No relative of, or person directly interested in, a candidate may invigilate an examination when this candidate is present.
3	Invigilators must be fully aware of their roles and responsibilities (see Section 2a).
4	At least one invigilator must be present throughout each examination.
5	Where there are more than 25 candidates, one additional invigilator is required for each additional 25 candidates, or part thereof.
6	In an L or T shaped room at least two invigilators must be present for the whole examination.
7	When only one invigilator is present this invigilator must be able to contact immediate assistance without disturbing candidates or leaving the room.
8	No persons not directly involved in the examination session are permitted to enter the examination room at any point (i.e. Principals, centre owners, teachers etc.).

Name of staff member responsible for training and supervision of Invigilators

Section 2a

Invigilation roles and responsibilities

A – Arranging the examination room

A1	Any display material that might be useful to candidates must be cleared from the walls.
A2	Desks are positioned at least 1 metre apart (if partitions or screen filters are available, workstations may be closer together).
A3	A wall clock should be clearly visible to all candidates.
A4	Display a board showing the centre code and the examination start and finish times.
A5	Make sure that the room is quiet and well lit. The room should also be well ventilated, at a reasonable temperature with sunlight glare blocked out.
A6	Follow any subject-specific invigilation instructions.
A7	Check you have a seating plan for the examination.

B – Identifying candidates

B1	Make sure you know the identity of every candidate in the examination room, by checking as necessary.
B2	If you do not know the identity of a candidate you must check their photo-identity.
B3	Make sure each candidate signs the attendance register and checks the spelling of his/her name.

C – Before the examination

C1	Place a notice on the door of the room that says ' Quiet please - examination in progress. No admittance '.
C2	Check the front of the question paper so you know what material candidates can use in the examination.
C3	Check that candidates have not brought into the examination any material they are not allowed such as revision notes, mobile phones or electronic dictionaries.
C4	Read out the Instructions to candidates .
C5	Open the packet of question papers in the examination room.
C6	Remind the candidates that they must fill in the details on the front of the answer booklet.
C7	Tell candidates to read the instructions on the front of the question paper.
C8	Tell candidates when they may begin and how much time they have to complete the examination.

D – During the examination

D1	Allow late candidates to enter the examination room quietly but only if the examination has been in progress for less than 30 minutes.
D2	Be vigilant and supervise the candidates at all times to prevent cheating.
D3	If you discover cheating, take away any unauthorised material and allow the candidate to continue. This should be reported as malpractice on the invigilation report which must be submitted to EDI.
D4	Make sure that a responsible adult is available to accompany any candidates who need to leave the room temporarily.
D5	Make sure candidates do not leave the examination room until at least 30 minutes after the start time.
D6	Tell candidates to stop writing at the end of the examination.

E – After the examination

E1	Collect all scripts and question papers before candidates leave the examination room ensuring that all details and question numbers answered on the front page of the scripts have been completed.
E2	Arrange scripts in the order candidates appear on the attendance register.
E3	Sign the invigilation report and record any late arrivals, disturbances or malpractice.
E4	Make sure that scripts are kept in a secure place before being sent, by a secure, traceable method, to EDI or your coordinating authority within 48 hours of the examination.
