LCCI MALAYSIA 2011 MEDAL AWARD CEREMONY

Malaysians take the lead again!

LCCI's 2011 Medal Award Ceremony, attended by over 200 guests and family members at the Cititel Midvalley in Petaling Jaya, celebrated yet another remarkable achievement by Malaysian students, with 60 Gold and Silver medals, 3 certificates of excellence being shared among 49 outstanding candidates in last year's examinations.

Students from 15 centres across the country converged on the hotel to receive their awards from Nigel Snook, Chief Executive of EDI (LCCI UK). The event was witnessed by representatives from LCCI UK, college heads, principals, employers, and of course a number of justifiably proud parents and family members. Many of these highly employable graduates will enter the workforce, whilst others make plans to further their academic and professional education.

LCCI honoured the 278 students in the 2011 worldwide cohort who scored the highest marks across the major subject areas. Once again, Malaysia was one of the best performing countries in the world, sweeping 22% of the global medal haul.

"We're very proud of the consistent success of students in Malaysia" said Mark Disney, COO of LCCI Asia. He added "It demonstrates a commendable level of commitment on behalf of the students and their teachers, and we are confident that the skills they have demonstrated will stand them in good stead for their future careers."

About LCCI International Qualifications

The London Chamber of Commerce and Industry (LCCI) International Qualifications has over 100 years' experience in providing trusted and valued business-related qualifications. With over 250,000 candidates annually, its qualifications are recognised internationally by employers, professional bodies and universities alike.

In 1881, the London Chamber of Commerce was established and quickly appreciated the need for improved commercial and technical education alongside advanced foreign language courses. The first examination in Asia was held in Mumbai in 1898 and grew from strength to strength across the region. LCCI now has more than 5,000 training partners in 120 countries around the world, underlining its status as a leading global provider of vocational, business-related qualifications.

Asia is the biggest and fastest growing market for LCCI International Qualifications. LCCI Asia is headquartered in Kuala Lumpur and is responsible for the administration and marketing of LCCI International Qualifications across Asia, including established markets such as Malaysia, Singapore, China and Hong Kong.
